Attendee means any person (including children and babies) other than the User (where the User is a natural person) on the Property in connection with the Permitted Use.

GST has the same meaning as in the GST law. GST law has the same meaning as in the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (Cth) as amended or replaced from time to time.

Property Details and Code of Conduct means the document of that name attached to this Agreement.

Reference Schedule means the document of that name attached to this Agreement.

Tax Invoice has the same meaning as in the GST law.

Taxable Supply has the same meaning as in the GST law.

Term means the period starting on and from the Start Date and ending on the End Date.

2. Use, Term and Option to Renew

2.1 Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, UCA grants to the User a non-exclusive right to undertake the Permitted Purpose at the Property:

- (a) during the Access Hours; and
- (b) within the Use Area, during the Term.

2.2 The User agrees and acknowledges that they must not, and any Attendee must not, use or occupy any building, structure, improvement, or space at the Property other than the Use Area without the prior written consent of UCA (which may be withheld at UCA's absolute discretion) other than for the purposes of ingress and egress.

2.3 The rights of the User to utilise the Use Area does not grant the User permission to use the Excluded Items or any furniture, fittings or equipment located elsewhere on the Property. The User must obtain the prior written consent of UCA (which may be withheld at UCA's absolute discretion) before using any such items.

2.4 UCA gives no warranty as to the suitability of the Use Area or the use to which the Use Area may be put by the User.

2.5 If there is further period stated at item 11 of the Reference Schedule and:

- (a) the User wishes to renew this Agreement for that further period;
- (b) the User gives notice in writing to UCA exercising the option to renew not more than six months and not less than 28 days prior to the End Date; and
- (c) the User is not, at the date of service of the notice given pursuant to clause 2.5(b) or thereafter in default or breach of any term of this Agreement, then UCA and the User will enter into a further agreement for the period stated in item 11 from the End Date on the same terms as this Agreement, except that item 11 will read NA and the Hourly Fee Rate will be such sum as determined by UCA.

3. Non-Exclusivity

3.1 The User acknowledges that its right to use the Use Area for the Permitted Use is not exclusive to the User and that UCA may permit other persons to conduct like activities or events at the Property notwithstanding that those are the same or similar to the Permitted Use in whole or in part.

3.2 The User further acknowledges that UCA has the right of admission to the Use Area at all times.

4. Fees and Payment

- 4.1 The User must pay the Fee Total by the Payment Due Date using the Payment Method, or otherwise as UCA may direct in writing from time to time.
- 4.2 If there are any Access Hours during the Term where the User will be absent and not using the Use Area, the User must notify UCA in writing of that anticipated absence as soon as reasonably practicable.
- 4.3 The User agrees and acknowledges that any Fee Total or part thereof which is paid is non-refundable, although UCA may in its absolute discretion refund or otherwise credit to the account of the User such amounts where it considers it is appropriate to do so.
- 4.4 UCA reserves the right to increase the Hourly Fee Rate (and the Fee Total) on 14 days' notice to the User in the event that UCA incurs any extraordinary costs, expenses or other charges in connection with its operation of the Use Area.
- 4.5 Where UCA and the User agree in writing to extend the Access Hours during the Term (whether on a one off basis or a regular basis) then the Hourly Fee Rate will be payable by the User for that additional time in accordance with clause 4.1 or as UCA may direct in writing from time to time.
- 4.6 If the User uses the Use Area or any other part of the Property outside the Access Hours (or as otherwise agreed in writing with UCA) without the prior permission of UCA then the User will pay UCA for that additional time on the basis of the Hourly Fee Rate, to be charged in 15 minute blocks at UCA's absolute discretion, in accordance with clause 4.1.
- 4.7 Where there is a Security Deposit the User must pay this by the Security Deposit Due Date using the Payment Method, or as UCA may otherwise direct from time to time.
- 4.8 Subject to the User complying with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, UCA will return the Security Deposit to the User within 28 days of the End Date using the Security Return Details or to any account which may be nominated by the User in writing.
- 4.9 If the User breaches any term of this Agreement (including any part of the Property Details and Code of Conduct), then UCA reserves the right to retain part or all of the Security Deposit towards making good any loss or damage sustained by UCA as a result of that breach.

5. GST

- 5.1 If any supply under this Agreement is a Taxable Supply, the User must pay to UCA the amount of the GST applicable to the supply in the same manner and at the same time as also paying the consideration otherwise payable by the User.
- 5.2 UCA must give to the User a Tax Invoice in respect of any payment received by UCA in accordance with clause 5.1.

6. Inclement Weather

- 6.1 The User acknowledges that it uses the Use Area at its own risk and that where the Use Area includes any outdoor space it is a matter for the User to decide whether to undertake the Permitted Use in the event of inclement weather, subject to clause 6.2.
- 6.2 UCA reserves the right to direct the User at any time to cease undertaking the Permitted Use in the Use Area where the Use Area includes outdoor space and, in the reasonable opinion of UCA, weather conditions are considered too dangerous to occupy the Use Area.

The User agrees and acknowledges that where they use gas cylinders and/or appliances in accordance with this clause, that use will be at the risk of the User;

- 9.2 Either party may terminate this Agreement on 28 days' written notice for any reason.

- 9.4 Where UCA terminates this Agreement in accordance with this clause 9, the User agrees and acknowledges that UCA will not be liable to the User for any compensation whatsoever and that the User will not make any claim against UCA for termination provided that UCA has provided the required notice.
- 9.5 Clauses 8 and 11, and this clause 9, survive termination or expiry of this Agreement.
- 9.6 Where the User terminates this Agreement in accordance with this clause, UCA may, in its absolute discretion, release the User from the terms and conditions of this Agreement, but will not refund to the User any amounts which have been paid in advance to UCA by the User, including but not limited to the Security Deposit.

11. Exclusion of Liability and Indemnity

- 11.1 The User acknowledges that it will use the Use Area, and bring personal property onto the Property, at its own risk.

- 12.2 The possession and control of the Use Area and Property as between the parties shall at all times remain vested in UCA.
- 12.3 The User must act with all proper due diligence and in good faith, and in a manner which is consistent with the operations and standing of UCA and the terms of this Agreement.

- 14.2 (Force Majeure Event), then that party's obligation to perform in accordance with this Agreement will be suspended for the duration of the delay arising out of the Force Majeure Event.
- 14.3 As soon as possible after a Force Majeure Event arises, the Affected Party must, if it has not already done so, notify the other party of the Force Majeure Event, the extent to which it is unable to perform its obligations under this Agreement, and the likely duration of the Affected Party's inability to perform.
- 14.4 If the Force Majeure Event is likely to or does continue for 60 days or more, the other party may terminate this Agreement within immediate or later effect by giving the Affected Party notice. If a party terminates this Agreement due to Force Majeure Event, each party must bear its own costs in relation to that termination.

15. Dispute Resolution

- 15.1 If a dispute arises between the parties in connection with this Agreement, either Party Contact must give a notice of dispute to the other party with particulars of the dispute and the Party Contacts must arrange to meet and use their best endeavours to resolve any disputes acting in a spirit of co-operation.
- 15.2 If, within 21 days of a notice of a dispute being issued, a dispute is unable to be resolved by negotiation, either party may refer the matter to expert determination for resolution.
- 15.3 If the parties are unable to agree on an expert, either party may request a nomination from the Chair of the Resolution Institute (ACN 008 651 232). Parties will pay their own costs of an expert resolution and will split the expert's costs equally.

16. Waiver

A party may only waive its rights under this Agreement by notice in writing.

17. Entire Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties regarding the subject matter and supersedes all prior representations, agreements, statements and understandings, whether oral or in writing, except to the extent of any liabilities incurred by the User prior to the termination of such agreements.

18. Further Assurance

Each party must promptly at its own cost do all acts and things and give all instructions necessary or incidental to give full effect to this Agreement.

19. Severability

If a provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, then to the extent of the invalidity, illegality or unenforceability, that provision must be ignored in the interpretation of this Agreement. All other provisions of this Agreement remain in full force and effect.

20. Representations

Each party has entered into this Agreement without relying on the representation by any other party or any person purporting to represent that party.

21. Governing Law

This Agreement is governed by the law applicable in New South Wales and each party irrevocably and unconditionally submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of that State.

22. Inconsistency with Reference Schedule

If there is an inconsistency between one or more provisions of this Agreement and the Reference Schedule, the provisions of the Reference Schedule will take precedence over the terms of this Agreement to the extent of the inconsistency.

23. Variation

If the parties want to vary this Agreement they must do so by a document executed by both parties.

24. Counterparts

This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which will be an original, but counterparts together will constitute one and the same instrument, and the date of this Agreement will be the date on which it is executed by the last party.

Property Details and Code of Conduct

This document forms part of the Agreement.

- (a) Contact Details. The User must tell UCA the User's contact address and telephone number for all emergencies. The User must keep UCA up to date with any changes to these details at all times.
- (b) Booking Confirmation. Bookings will not be confirmed until the User signs this Agreement and pays the fees and any security deposit in accordance with clause 4. UCA reserves the right to offer the Use Area to other users during the Access Hours where the User fails to pay the fees in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.
- (c) Smoking, Alcohol and Illicit Substances. The User must not permit any person to smoke, consume alcohol (unless otherwise authorised in writing by UCA) or consume illicit substances in the Use Area or anywhere on the Property.

The User must obtain the written consent of UCA before serving alcohol in the Use Area and, where consent to serve alcohol is granted by UCA, the User must not charge Attendees for the service of that alcohol. Where permission has been granted by UCA to serve alcohol, it is the User's responsibility to ensure that alcohol is only consumed by people who are over the age of 18 years and that it is served in a safe and responsible manner. For all uses involving alcohol, the User must register with the NSW Police Party Safety Service (available at https://www.police.nsw.gov.au/online_services/party_safety/party_registration) and provide a copy of the registration to UCA prior to the commencement of the relevant event.

- (d) Keys and Security. UCA may give the User keys or access devices to the Use Area and/or other parts of the Property. Any key or access device given to the User must be kept in the User's possession. The User must not give keys or access devices to any person without the prior written consent of UCA. In particular, the User must not
 - (i) give keys accessing toilets or other facilities to members of the general public; or
 - (ii) give keys accessing the Use Area and/or other parts of the Property to any person who does not have their own key or access device.

The User must not copy any key or access device. If the User misplaces a key or access device, UCA may replace that device at the User's Cost. When the Term ends and the Option is not exercised, the User must return all keys and access devices to UCA. The User must comply with UCA's access control system for the Property and Use Area.

For security reasons, the User must not leave the Use Area unattended during the Access Hours. If the User does need to leave the Use Area during the Access Hours, they must lock the Use Area prior to leaving and inform UCA as soon as reasonably practicable that they have left the Use Area.

- (e) Emergencies. If an incident occurs, the User must contact the UCA Party Contact named in this Agreement or as otherwise directed by UCA in writing. If the incident required immediate assistance from police, ambulance or fire and rescue, then the User (or any Attendee) must first call 000 and request the service/s required. Any use of first aid equipment must be recorded and reported to UCA.

For any non-urgent incidents relating to property maintenance please email details to the UCA Party Contact named in this Agreement.

- (f) Social Media. The User must not, and must ensure that Attendees do not, promote the Permitted Use on social media without the express written permission of UCA.
- (g) Music and Amplified Sound. If the User plays (or arranges for others to play) live music (whether amplified or not), plays recorded music, makes any sound using sound equipment, or uses a television, computer or other electronic device to broadcast any sound recordings, films, television or sound broadcasts, or other multimedia materials, the User must make sure the sound is not heard or likely to be heard outside the Use Area. The User may play 'background recorded music' provided the User ensures that it does not impact or annoy any persons using other parts of the Property or any neighbours of the Property. The User must ensure that they hold all relevant licences to play or otherwise broadcast any sound recordings, films, television or sound broadcasts, or other multimedia materials.
- (h) Neighbours and Parking. At all times the User will respect the privacy and right to quiet enjoyment of all neighbours of the Property.
